

Sarah Plante-Buhs

SARAH'S HOME COUNTRY

CONTROL

Home

187

Control Country is Sarah's Home Country where they strongly voted 187 for the land of black & white decisions, confidence and accomplishment. This is the land where the residents have the inborn ability to lead clubs, organizations and corporations. Sarah can be very influential when they have their mind set on something. They see to it that they are always in control of their own environment. Because Sarah's Home Country is Control, they are able to instantly figure out what needs to be done, who needs to do it and why. They live out their relationships with people by being decisive and sure about what they are doing while conveying their confidence to others. Their natural leadership skills make it possible for Sarah to overcome any obstacles and achieve their goals. When they know what they want, Sarah goes after it and doesn't give up easily.

SARAH'S ADOPTED COUNTRY

FUN

Adopted

125

Sarah voted for their Adopted Country of Fun with an elevated 125 votes. Whenever they enter this land of fun, socializing and good times, they are energetic and loaded with enthusiasm. Sarah is always on the lookout for opportunities to have fun and be with people that they know and new people that they meet. They have a very positive outlook on life and always looks on the bright side of things. Sarah is in good spirits when they're in a social atmosphere because having many friends and acquaintances is a priority to them.

SARAH'S NATURE

120 SOFT

148 HARD

Sarah is a Hard natured person who voted at a very high level, 148 votes, for Hard traits such as Strong Willed, Consistent and Organized. They are always interested in the bottom line and never wants to bother with any "extra" information. As a person who lives life through their Hard nature, Sarah is interested in results rather than relationships or feelings. They don't let their emotions get in the way of their goals. Because of this, Sarah is able to achieve many accomplishments. Their determination is strong and their confidence high, which makes them one who doesn't give up easily when there is something that they want done. When they know what they needs to do, they go after it without hesitation.

SARAH'S TOP 5

1 BORN LEADER

I like leading initiatives.

As a Born Leader, Sarah challenges themselves and others to accomplish goals. They're the one who sets the pace and the example for the people they leads. Their love of leading makes it possible for them to empower others to achieve more than they normally would without their leadership.

2 SELF-SUFFICIENT

Able to make it happen.

Though Sarah can have times when they enjoy being with people, their Self-Sufficiency keeps them from becoming too dependent on them. Being Self-Sufficient is what drives them to work at their own pace, even though other people might not feel that they are a part of the team.

3 GOOD ON STAGE

Let's get excited about this.

It's from the stage that Sarah is able to communicate their beliefs and values to the largest number of people. Being on stage allows them to accomplish more through people so they can make an impact quickly. It is a thrill for them to be up in front of a crowd with that spotlight feeling.

4 THRIVES ON ENCOURAGEMENT

Give me positive feedback to help me grow.

Sarah needs constructive input from people in order to be truly happy in life. Encouragement allows them to know that they are accepted. It's Encouragement that lets Sarah know what's good about them. They need a nurturing force in their life from people who are close to them.

5 INSPIRATIONAL

Making an impact.

If there is any way Sarah can make a difference, impact a life or do something valuable, they will find it. They must inspire because they care about people and want to help improve their lives. Their talent for lifting people out of their bad moods and cheering them up is rare in this world.